

40TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE GREENSBORO MASSACRE

On November 3, 1979, five young labor and community activists were gunned down in broad daylight in Greensboro, North Carolina by KKK and neo-Nazis, aided by local police and federal agents. The killers were acquitted twice by all-white juries. In a third civil trial, the role of the government was finally proven and acknowledged.

WHO WERE THESE FIVE EXTRAORDINARY PEOPLE AND WHY WERE THEY MURDERED?

HOW DID IT HAPPEN?

WHO ARE THE SURVIVORS AND WHAT HAS THEIR CONTINUED WORK FOR SOCIAL CHANGE AND SEARCH FOR JUSTICE YIELDED SINCE NOV. 3, 1979?

WHAT LESSONS FROM THE GREENSBORO MASSACRE ARE RELEVANT FOR ACTIVISTS TODAY?
